

AGREE UPON CHANGES IN INCOME TAX PLAN

Members of Finance Committee Decide Upon Radical Changes

OTHER ALTERATIONS

Alterations of Administrative Features of the Measure Will be Made

OVERCOME FOREIGN PROTESTS

WASHINGTON, June 24.—Radical changes in the income tax plan of the Underwood tariff bill and alteration of the administrative features of the measure to overcome most of the objections raised by foreign governments were agreed upon in a tentative way today by the Democratic members of the senate finance committee. The income tax, under the new plan would apply to individual incomes over $3,000, but would make important exemptions for individuals, municipalities, civic bodies and mutual insurance companies under certain restrictions. Changes in the administrative sections include a new provision giving the president authority to increase tariff duties against certain foreign articles coming from countries that discriminate against the United States. The proposed five per cent concession in tariff on goods brought in American ships; the anti-dumping clause; and the provision giving United States authorities inquisitorial powers to examine books of foreign manufacturers when the valuation of is in dispute were stricken out. These provisions brought protests from many foreign nations. Democrats of the committee it clear today that some further changes might be made in the income tax and administrative sections before they were reported to the senate caucus, but the revised sections as made public today are expected to stand with but little alteration until the caucus reaches them. Senate Democrats in caucus on the bill spent the entire day on wool and sugar. Just before adjournment tonight Chairman Simmons of the finance committee secured agreement to vote upon both not later than four o'clock tomorrow. No amendment to the free wool provisions has been offered, but the majority senators will have an opportunity to express their opinions on two sugar amendments.

Senator Shafroth offered one to fix the rate at the end of three years at about one cent a pound instead of the free list provision now in the bill.

Senator Thornton offered the second amendment to provide that the rates remain as they are in the Payne-Aldrich act.

It was regarded as probable tonight that the anti-free sugar men would get together tomorrow before the vote is taken and decide to concentrate their support behind one amendment if one beaten. Leaders were confident that despite the oratory against free sugar it will be retained in the bill and that only the two Louisiana senators would be found opposed to it when the measures reaches the senate.

Exceptions to Married Men.

Under the proposed new form of the income tax, an additional exemption of $1,000 would be allowed to married men or married women with dependent wives or husbands. Under this law and $500 would be added for each dependent child living with and dependent upon upon the taxable parent. In case of both parents being taxable, however, no exemption for children would apply.

Other important changes in the plan include the exemption from tax, of that portion of the premiums collected by the mutual life or mutual marine insurance companies which may be returned to policy holders in the form of dividends. The taxation of this portion of their income has been bitterly opposed by the insurance companies. The Underwood bill had exempted only mutual fire insurance companies on this basis.

Chambers of commerce, civic bodies and cities, counties and states are added to this class of organizations whose incomes will not be taxable. To secure the payment of tax upon "coupons, checks or bills of exchange" collected for foreign residents, a provision was added requiring all firms collecting such funds to secure a license from the commissioner of internal revenue so the amount of their collections might at any time be inquired into. The revision of the administrative features eliminates many of the reforms proposed in the Underwood bill as it passed the house, the senate committee proposes an amendment, however, providing for a joint committee to investigate the revenue administration laws with the view to "simplifying, harmonizing, revising and codifying" them.

Recommend Appropriation.

This committee would consist of three senators to be appointed by the vice-president and four members of the ways and means committee

POINCARÉ IS GUEST OF KING GEORGE

PRESIDENT OF FRENCH REPUBLIC IS ENTERTAINED AT BANQUET

French Presidential Party Arrived in London on Royal Train, Passed Long Lines of Soldiers and Was Cheered by Thousands—Great Display of Pomp.

LONDON, June 24.—Raymond Poincaré, president of the French republic, was entertained by the king at a state banquet tonight with as great a display of pomp and magnificence as ever was shown in honoring a royal guest at Buckingham palace. Early in the morning President Poincaré had been greeted at Portsmouth by the Prince of Wales and later at Victoria station by the British sovereign.

The French presidential party proceeded from Portsmouth to London on the royal train and passed through long lines of soldiers and crowded streets lavishly decorated, cheered by thousands.

At the state banquet the famous Windsor Castle service of gold plate was used. The floral decorations were profuse, being so blended as to show the tri-color of France on every hand. Yeoman of the guard in quaint medieval costume were posted around the spacious chamber, serving as a picturesque background for brilliant uniforms and gorgeous jeweled toilettes.

The president of France sat between King George and Queen Mary at the center table at which were seated also other members of the royal family and the ambassadors. The other guests, numbering about 100, occupied thirteen tables. The king in proposing President Poincaré's health referred to the cordial relation between France and England as the great factor in the preservation of European peace.

A response in the same strain was made by the president.

SHOOTING DAUGHTER AND SELF.

Shenandoah, Ia., June 24.—Geo. Gudgell, a farmer, whose home was four miles south of Farragut, Ia., today shot his 5-year-old daughter and himself. Both died instantly. Family trouble was the cause. Two older sons were at home and were not molested.

to be appointed by the speaker and their recommendations would be required to be reported not later than Feb. 1st, 1914.

An appropriation of $15,000 for the investigation is recommended. The specified articles and rates to which the authority of the president to make retaliatory increases in duties would extend is as follows:

Fish of all kinds, one cent per pound.

Coffee, three cents per pound.

Tea, ten cents per pound.

On the following articles, one and one-fourth times the rate specified in the bill:

Earthenware, stone and china-ware, expressed oils, lemons, cheese, wines of all kinds, malt liquors, knitted goods, silk dresses and silk goods, leather, gloves, laces and embroideries of whatever material composed and articles made wholly or in part of the same, toys, jewelry and precious, semi-precious and imitation precious stones, suitable for use in the manufacture of jewelry.

On the following in addition to the regular duties as provided in the bill, the duties specified below:

Sugar, etc., testing by the polariscope not above seventy-five degrees, fifteen hundred, this per cent per pound and every additional degree by polariscope test an additional one hundred pounds. Molasses two cents per gallon.

On wool of the sheep, hair of the Angora goat, and other like animals and all wools and hair on the skins of such animals and all wool waste 15 per cent ad valorem.

The president could invoke his proclamation whenever satisfied that the discriminations had ceased to exist.

In striking out provision against which foreign nations protested, the senate Democrats acted upon the belief that the proposed requirements were "unnecessarily inquisitorial" and would hamper importations.

Articles manufactured by child labor would be excluded together with convict labor goods, through an amendment by Senator Borah, which would exclude all foreign goods except immediate products of agriculture forests and fisheries, manufactured wholly or in part by convict labor or by children under fourteen years of age.

Circuit courts of appeal would be given concurrent jurisdiction with the United States court of customs appeals through another provision put in by the senate committee in all cases involving more than $100.

Must Change Date.

Tonight the majority members of the finance committee determined that the income tax law should not be made operative prior to the time the income tax amendment to the constitution was ratified and proclaimed by the secretary of state, which was February 15th, of this year. The Underwood bill would make the tax operative for the year 1913, beginning January 1st. This will be changed and the committee will ask the attorney general to draft the enacting clause.

EXPLOSION IN GRAIN ELEVATOR KILLS FOUR

SIXTY ARE INJURED, MANY FATALLY AS RESULT OF THE EXPLOSION

Accident Was Caused by the Puffing of Dust Accumulations in Feed House—Fire Follows and Destroys Wooden Section of the Elevator.

BUFFALO, N. Y., June 24.—Four men are known to be dead and sixty were injured, some fatally, and four are unaccounted for, as the result of an explosion late today in the elevator and grain store house of the Husted Milling company at Elk and Peabody streets. Fire followed the explosion and destroyed the wooden section of the elevator. The known dead are:

Michael King, 41 years old; Henry Vetter, 45 years old; John Conroy, nickel plate engineer, and an unidentified man.

There are sixty injured in the various hospitals of the city, half of whom, according to hospital physicians, are so badly burned that they have slight chance of recovery.

John Conroy, the nickel plate engineer, who was blown out of his cab, died tonight.

Firemen in searching the ruins of the elevator tonight discovered the body of a man. It was burned so badly that identification is not considered probable. The finding of this body led to the belief that several others failed to escape and that their bodies are still in the debris.

That many of the injured cannot survive and that the ultimate dead may reach fifteen, is an estimate reached by a canvass of the hospital list.

The explosion was caused by the puffing of dust accumulations in the feed house and was of frightful force, tearing out one wall of the wooden structure and breaking windows for a quarter of a mile around. Several windows in cars of a passing Nickel Plate passenger train were broken by the explosion.

The body of Henry Vetter was blown fifty feet and was found under a box car nearby badly burned. A boy, while running to the fire, was run down by an automobile and killed.

The elevator company employed 150 men and, according to Vice-president Husted of the company, all have been accounted for except four. Employees who escaped declared, however, that many of their fellow workmen were cut off by the flames and perished.

A dozen box cars loaded with grain were destroyed. The elevator had a capacity of 500,000 bushels, half of which was old wooden construction and with its contents was totally destroyed. Officials of the company estimated their loss at $500,000, covered by insurance.

The vote was taken to secure an expression from the business men on the building trades strike in Springfield, and to see whether arbitration was desired. Talk of a general strike on the part of organized labor was heard tonight, following announcement of the vote. Springfield has long been known as one of the strongest union centers in the country and the situation is being watched with much interest.

Caminetti-Diggs and Western Fuel Co. Cases Will be Prosecuted at Once

HIRE SPECIAL COUNSEL

President Will Confer Today With McReynolds About Special Prosecutors

ACCEPT McNABS RESIGNATION

WASHINGTON, June 24.—President Wilson tonight telegraphed United States District Attorney John L. McNab of San Francisco, California, accepting the latter's resignation, the form of which the president characterized, "an inexcusable intimation of injustice and wrongdoing" on the part of Attorney General McReynolds. In a letter to the attorney general the president exonerated him from blame and adopted Mr. McReynolds suggestion that the Caminetti-Diggs and the Western Fuel company cases be prosecuted immediately by special counsel for the government.

White house officials announced that the president would confer with the attorney general tomorrow about the appointment of special prosecutors and that the president had in mind Francis J. Heney, Progressive Republican who prosecuted the famous San Francisco graft trials; Matt J. Sullivan, Democrat, who assisted Mr. Heney in the Ruff trial and Thomas Hayden, a Democrat former city attorney in San Francisco. It was said that at least two of these three men and possibly all, to take charge of the Caminetti-Diggs white slave cases and the Western Fuel company indictments.

Developments were rapid during the day of the situations brought about by the accusations of McNab.

Regrets Hasty Action.

The subject absorbed the cabinet meeting to day and tonight the president came to his office to make public the full correspondence. First the president telegraphed Mr. McNab, regretting that he acted "so hastily and under so complete misapprehension of the actual circumstances." But as he chose such course and had given his "resignation the form of an inexcusable intimation of injustice and wrongdoing on the part of your superior I release you without hesitation and accept your resignation to take effect at once."

Attorney McReynolds statement that he ordered a postponement of the cases as an ordinary procedure in criminal trials, without anticipating that "any fair-minded man" would attribute "a malicious motive" to him was acknowledged by the president in a letter in which he expressed entire satisfaction with the course pursued by the attorney general. The president also said he agreed with Mr. McReynolds that special counsel be employed to immediately prosecute the cases at issue.

Besides the attorney general's letter to the president the white house gave out a letter written to Mr. McReynolds to day by Secretary Wilson of the department of labor in which the latter declared that Anthony Caminetti asked for leave of absence to attend the trial of his son before he took the oath of office as commissioner general of immigration. "The secretary Wilson stated that neither Mr. Caminetti nor anyone else suggested that he ask for the postponement of the cases but he did it of his own volition so as to keep Mr. Caminetti in Washington for the work of organizing the immigration bureau."

Much Work For Executive.

Governor Dunne practically finished work tonight on the bills delivered to him prior to last Saturday. Several of these were laid aside, for one reason or another to be finally passed upon at a later time. But five days are left to the governor in which to pass upon the 125 bills that are yet to reach him, consequently there is no time to be lost. Governor Dunne holds that all the bills which become laws on July 1st, unless specifically vetoed by him. This does not give the executive the constitutional ten days, exclusive of Sundays, to pass upon bills. If the governor stood upon his constitutional right he could take until July 2nd, or longer, to act upon the bills that have not reached him yet. In that event the measures would not become effective until July 1st, 1914. Mayor Harrison and members of the city council of the city of Chicago will appear before the governor at 11 o'clock tomorrow morning and urge him to veto the public utility bill.

Chicago Delegation Leaves.

Chicago, June 24.—Mayor Harrison, Corporation Counsel Sexton, fifty-nine members of the council and members of civic bodies bring the number of the protesting delegation to the neighborhood of one hundred left tonight for Springfield to urge the governor to veto the utilities bill.

Mayor Harrison denounced the bill before taking the train for Springfield.

"Viciousness of this bill," he said, "lies in the fact that home rule

WILL VETO CHICAGO MUNICIPAL COURT ACT

GOVERNOR DUNNE HOLDS THAT MEASURE IS UNCONSTITUTIONAL

Fault is Found With That Portion of the Act Which Provides That Any One May Prosecute Without an Indictment—Suffragettes Impatient.

SPRINGFIELD, Ill., July 24.—Governor Dunne holds that the Chicago municipal court act is "clearly unconstitutional" and said tonight that he has made up his mind to veto it. The executive finds fault with that portion of the act which provides that anyone may prosecute without an indictment. In effect the new act abolishes the grand jury for municipal court actions but leaves it to govern in the higher courts and the state's attorney or any individual may cause the arrest and trial of a person without a preliminary examination. The veto, which probably will be written tomorrow, will be based upon Governor Dunne's personal opinion as a lawyer, backed up by an opinion from the attorney general.

Governor Dunne said that in his opinion it would be possible under the act for any police officer or individual to force any citizen to trial on any charge except treason or murder without a preliminary hearing, a grand jury investigation or upon the filing of information by the state's attorney. The executive holds that since circuit and county courts give a defendant these rights it would be unconstitutional to deny them in a municipal court.

The municipal court act is the first of the bills of the legislature to fall under the ban of a veto. Consideration of the act occupied more time on the house side than any bill during the session. While in the house the attention of the proponents of the measure were called to the points Governor Dunne holds to be defective but they refused to eliminate the section.

The bills carrying the appropriations for the University of Illinois and the charitable institutions were signed today.

Suffragettes Are Alarmed.

Springfield, Ill., June 24.—Friends of woman suffrage were alarmed today when the opinion of Attorney General Heney on the suffrage bill did not reach Governor Dunne. The delay has aroused the fears of the suffragists that their bill is to be vetoed.

Up to this time Governor Dunne has given no intimation of his probable action on the bill. The attorney general's opinion is expected to reach the governor tomorrow. Under the constitutional limit of ten days Governor Dunne has until Friday to act upon the suffrage bill and he may consume the limit of time.

The alarm of the suffragists for the safety of their bill was increased today by the unauthenticated report that the opinion of the attorney general holds the bill to be unconstitutional on several grounds. One of these, according to rumor, is that there is no way to put the act into operation, the legislature having failed to amend the Australian ballot law so as to provide the necessary election machinery for the double ballot.

RAILROADS WILL ABIDE BY TERMS OF SUPREME COURT DECISION

Seven Minnesota Railroads Agree to Decision and New Rates Will Probably be Effective by July 10.

St. Paul, June 24.—Seven railroads operating in Minnesota tonight agreed to abide by the terms of the supreme decision in the Minnesota rate cases and announcement was made that the new rates probably would be placed in effect by July 10 and that refunds of over-charges would be made in all cases where proper proofs of such overcharges were produced.

The agreement was not signed by the Rock Island nor by the Great Western, these roads having claimed that their earnings were on a par with those of the Minneapolis and St. Louis road and that the new rates would be confiscatory. They were represented at the meeting, however.

MUST ANSWER CHARGE OF GRAND LARCENY.

Calgary, Can., June 24.—D. A. Williams, who has been posing as a Titanic survivor and delivering lectures in Canada, will leave here for Gilman, Ill., tomorrow, in custody of Chicago detectives to answer a charge of grand larceny, placed against him by a firm at Gilman. Official papers authorizing the extradition were issued tonight.

HEAVY RAIN STORM.

Kansas City, June 24.—A severe electrical storm accompanied by a precipitation of two inches of rain, swept Kansas City tonight. Half a dozen persons were injured by lightning. It was the first rain of any consequence in three months. Reports to the weather bureau said the storm was general in eastern Kansas and this part of Missouri.

HARVESTER COMPANY OFFICIALS RESIGN

DIRECTORS OF INDEPENDENT HARVESTER CO. SURRENDER OFFICES

Government is Investigating Method Used by the Company to Sell Stock—Much Stock Sold Had No Vote But Entitled Holder to Discount On Machinery.

AURORA, Ill., June 24.—Officials and directors of the Independent Harvester company at Plano, Ill., whose methods of stock selling are being investigated by the government, resigned today and new officers were elected in their places. Those resigning were President and General Manager W. C. Thompson, Chicago and Directors Ning Eley, Des Plaines, Joseph Deia, Plano, A. L. Lye, Plano, W. W. Parish Jr., Mokenca and Robert McLeod-Jacobs, Chicago.

The new president is William Deering Steward, of Plano, president of the Plano State bank. The new board of directors is Attorney Frank G. Hancock, Chicago; O. S. Steward, William Deering Steward and C. E. Jeter of Plano, the latter the mayor of the city. Judge F. L. Martin of Hutchinson, Kansas, Grant Grinnell of Kankakee and E. M. Shelby of Eagle Grove, Iowa.

The new directors were elected by attorneys and others representing the holders of 800,000 shares of the common stock of the company. The company is a $10,000,000 corporation and has issued approximately $7,000,000 worth of stock, but only $800,000 of the stock is common or voting stock. About $6,000,000 is styled as preferred machinery discount stock and has no vote.

It merely entitles the holder, largely farmers, to a discount on the machinery he buys of the harvester company. Some of those farmers claimed they were led to believe they could vote their stock when they bought it.

Surrenders Common Stock.

Former President Thompson held $380,000 of the common stock. He surrendered his stock today to the new directors to be held by them or taken over as they will. If it is not sold or taken over he may retain his interest, President Steward stated. The company has not paid a dividend since it was organized four years ago but has been adding many new buildings and putting in much new equipment. This is where the dividends have gone, a former official said.

About 500 men are now employed in the plant which has been enlarged each year.

A meeting will be held on Friday to decide on further re-organization plans.

"All factions are represented on the new board," President Steward said tonight. "While the preferred machinery discount stockholders have no vote they are represented on the board and will be taken care of. We want to make this plant a co-operative plant, in all the world implies, we want to get away from the one man control which has caused so much dissatisfaction."

Peoria, Ill., June 24.—Twenty states were represented at the initial session of the twentieth annual convention of the National Hay association which opened in Peoria today, featuring the day's session with nearly 300 delegates in attendance. HAVE DIFFICULTY IN SECURING JURY.

Joliet, Ill., June 24.—Cmld was again placed on the witness stand in the case of Edward Creevey, against Nora McHardin for the return of $100 diamond engagement ring which the young lady refused to give back, claiming it is only partial remuneration for the time she wasted upon Creevey before she jilted him. Considerable difficulty was experienced in securing a jury to try the case as the men called all stated that they would favor the young lady rather than run the risk of the displeasure of their own wives and sweethearts.

LIGHTNING STARTS $50,000 FIRE AT DUQUOIN.

DuQuoin, Ill., June 24.—Fire which destroyed the entire business district of Sesser, northeast of here did about $50,000 damage today. The blaze originated in a building struck by lightning and was soon beyond control of the volunteer fire fighters. Two squares were razed and the town was cut off from all wire communication with the outside world.

CURRENCY BILL WILL UNDERGO CHANGES

Provision for Retirement of National Bank Notes to be Restored

OBJECTIONS TOO STRONG

Changes Were Forced Upon Administration Leaders Because of Strong Opposition

SEEK IMPARTIAL OPINIONS

WASHINGTON, June 24.—The administration currency bill is to undergo some important changes before it is pushed for action in either house or senate, although the measure will be introduced in both houses virtually in the same form in which it was recently made public by Representative Glass. The provision for the retirement of National bank notes and the refunding of two per cent government bonds with a three per cent issue is to be put back into the measure later it is understood with the consent of the administration. This provision was in the bill before the final conferences at the white house, but was taken out because of the opposition of Secretary Bryan and others. Much of the criticism against the measure since its terms became public has been directed at the proposal to produce a new kind of currency without withdrawing the National bank notes or providing against a depreciation in value of the two per cent government bonds that secure these notes. It is said now that this objection has become so strong as to convince administration leaders the provision must be restored if the bill is to pass.

Chairman Glass and Democratic members of the house currency committee at a conference today agreed to undertake individually to "sound out" impartial bankers, business men, experts and students of financial affairs, to ascertain how the provisions of the Glass bill are regarded by that part of the public which will be most directly affected by monetary changes. Members of the senate committee on banking and currency Democrats and Republicans will meet President Wilson at the white house tomorrow night for their first discussion of the new measure with him.

Representative Lindbergh, of Minnesota, Progressive member of the house banking and currency committee criticised the new bill in a statement today: "If enacted in its present form," he said, "the bill would deal with the banking interests only. It has no direct relation to the people except in the creation of a national reserve board."

FEDERAL GRAND JURY RETURNS INDICTMENTS

Chicago, June 24.—Indictments against agents of the Empire Portland Cement company, a $150,000 corporation with works at Portsmouth, O., and offices formerly in Chicago were returned by the federal grand jury here today for the second time in three months. Albert H. Marshall, Chicago, Arthur G. Marshall, New York, Albert T. Kirk, Shell City, Mo., Harry E. Williams, Sheboygan, Wis., and Jules T. Bostor, Chicago, secretary and treasurer of the company are charged with conspiring to defraud buyers of the stock of the company. A demurrer to the former indictment was sustained.

MANNY SLEEP ALONE AT "DEATH FARM."

Elgin, Ill., June 24.—Manny Sleep of East Peoria is alone tonight at "death farm," as far as his family is concerned. His wife and two babies were murdered by Herman Coppes, a 14-year-old state ward, two months ago. Later his oldest daughter, Hattie, refused to keep house for him. Today the Kane county court took the last member of his family, Ida, aged 10, away from him and gave her into the custody of an uncle, Fred Sleep, of Waukegan, Wis.

WIND BLOWS DOWN ICE HOUSE AT NICHOLS PARK

Building Razed to the Ground in Storm of Tuesday Afternoon—Cow Killed by Falling Timber.

The large ice house, located at the north end of Morgan lake was razed to the ground Tuesday afternoon by the wind, the building being totally wrecked. A cow, that stood at the side of the house for shelter was killed outright by the falling timber. The building is owned by H. K. Snyder and he figures his loss at $1,000. The cow was the property of Daniel Kelly, the custodian of Nichols Park.

In the destruction of the building the swinging gallery was wrecked, but the engine and hoisting machinery was not damaged. There was no insurance on the house. The building has been up for a number of years and it is probably that the owner will construct a modern ice storage plant there in the near future. That vicinity of the county was visited by gust of wind of strong proportions and the rain that fell was high to a cloud burst.

REPORT OF STORM.

The Necessity of Uniform Quality Coffee.

One phase of this business is the extreme desirability of keeping the product uniform, this being PARTICULARLY true of COFFEE. The average person is perhaps a little more particular about the MORNING CUP of the beverage than about any other article on their MENU. When the coffee varies in quality or flavor some one is apt to hear about it and in time the kick gets back to the one who sold the COFFEE. It is just this phase of the coffee business that has caused us to select BLENDS UNIFORM IN CUP QUALITY and make it easier to sell the 2nd, 3rd and cautioned orders than it was the 1st order. Our Blend No. 1, represents only the genuine Mandhling Java and The Old Arabian Mocha and sells at only 45c although the same quality sold in packages would cost you 50c. REMEMBER all of our coffees are sold in BULK.

Keep the Auto or Buggy Bright

Our soft wool dusters are the best ever for your automobile or buggy. They bring better results than feather dusters or rag wipers and do not tarnish the finish.

Wool sponges have more than doubled in price in the past three months but we charge you the same old price. Get one to day. Follow the use of the sponge with one of our oil tan chamolais skins and your vehicle will shine like a new one. Our chamolais skins were specially selected, are soft in texture and durable in quality.

SOAPS AND TALCUM—You will be clean and comfortable both if you use our soaps and talcums. We specially recommend Luna Oil soap; it is equal in quality to soaps of three times the price.

BOWEN ADVOCATES
SYSTEM OF STATE JAILSADDRESSES OPENING SESSION OF OFFICIALS OF CHARITY AND CORRECTION.

Secretary of State Charities Commission Declares Jails Should Be Under the Direction, Control and Supervision of State Authorities.

Springfield, Ill., June 24.—A system of state jails under the direction, control, administration and supervision of state authorities was advocated tonight by A. L. Bowen, Executive Secretary of the Illinois State Charities Commission, in an address at the opening session of the American Association of Officials of Charity and Correction.

Mr. Bowen pointed out the fact that the majority of the population of the jails of Illinois are offenders against the statutes of the State and as such offenders, they should be in the custody of the State, both pending trial and also after conviction. He reviewed the history of the attacks by reform agencies upon the jail system and showed that in fifty years' time practically no change has taken place for its betterment and improvement.

Mr. Bowen said that the almshouses have been improved, the white plague has been legislated against, State charitable institutions have been taken from the domination of politics, penology has made marked advances and "society as a whole has accepted a high standard of responsibility for the well-being of its unfortunate members, but back among the people, under their very nose, the old jail, the house of correction, city lock-up and village calaboose are prized civic antiquities, displayed to all strangers and visitors as among the sights to be seen."

No Good Jails.

The speaker said that here in Illinois we admit that there is no good jail and declared that the State Charities Commission had been unable to find a model jail in America. The vitality of the old jail system he attributed to the organized opposition of sheriffs to radical reforms and to a lack of interest and sympathy on the part of the public for the unfortunate man who gets into trouble.

He spoke of the growing tendency of the times to punish by imprisonment rather than by fines, but where imprisonment of the support of dependents is necessary, the popular idea is that he should be compelled to work and that his earnings should be turned over to such dependents. This tendency, Mr. Bowen declared made it the more imperative that our jail system be improved and modernized.

If the state takes care of all such prisoners, whether in a colony or an industrial center, it would contain sufficient population to admit of a fair degree of classification and segregation, and would render possible education in books, manual and vocational training and the products of such an institution could be disposed for the benefit of the prisoners.

Mr. Bowen said it would be absurd to attempt to make such an institution self-supporting, for to do so would mean taking the receipts of the prisoner's work from him and his family and throwing them upon the support of some other public fund.

Places of Detention.

The state jail, however, he said, does not solve the whole problem, for there must be a local place of detention for those who violate city or county ordinances or who have committed crime and must be detained pending disposition of their cases. For such as those he advocated joint action by the county and its county seat in the erection of a joint place of detention. He said more prompt action in bringing men to trial would remedy some of our jail evils.

Over these temporary places of custody and detention Mr. Bowen would appoint some high state authority, such as a board of commission, whose duty it would be to inspect them and to make such recommendations as may be necessary to maintain a standard of physical plant and administration. The state should establish a certain minimum regulation governing the plan and construction of such jails. Food should be of a standard quality.

Feeding On Per Diem Plan.

The pernicious system of feeding prisoners on per diem allowance should be abolished, so that the sheriff or jailer would have no pecuniary interest or profit in the food he sets before those in his charge. On this point the speaker said: "There would be just as much logic in the state legislature of our state voting to our board of administration fifty cents per day for the food of each of the twenty thousand inmates of our charitable institutions and permit that board to pocket the profit if temptation which squeezes out of such a deal—just as much logic and reason in this, I say, as there is in the county board voting to its sheriff, fifty cents a day for the food of each prisoner in his charge and allowing him to make a personal profit of fifty per cent. The temptation to crowd into the state institution all the population it would hold for the profit that he board of administration might make on feeding them, would be no different from that temptation which induces the average sheriff to fill his jail and keep it full for the profit on the meals."

Proposes Union of Counties.

As a penalty for failure of a county to comply with the orders of this state's commission, it should have power to close the jail and throw upon the county and the city the cost and expense of transferring their prisoners to another county.

Mr. Bowen also favored an optional law which would permit two or more contiguous counties to unite in the construction of a central jail.

WORKERS FOR BLIND MEET IN CONVENTION

AMERICAN ASSOCIATION OPENED TWELFTH BI-ENNIAL SESSION TUESDAY.

Excellent Musical Program By Teachers of Illinois School For Blind—Addresses By Eben P. Morford of Brooklyn and George R. Bellows of Baltimore—Delegates From Many States Here.

The twelfth bi-ennial convention of the American Association of Workers for the Blind which is to be in session in Jacksonville four days and which includes delegates from all parts of the union was opened Tuesday evening at 8 o'clock by an excellent program which consisted of addresses of welcome and a musical program under the direction of Miss Lillian A. Smith of the Illinois school. An informal reception for the delegates was held in the lower hall at the close of the program. Although a good representation was present from various schools for the blind of different states a great many more delegates are expected to arrive today.

An address of welcome was made by Robert W. Woolston, superintendent of the Illinois school for the blind which was responded to by Eben P. Morford, president of the association. Hon. Fred J. Kern, chairman of the Illinois board of administration, who was to have spoken the first word of greeting, was unable to be present. George R. Bellows, vice-president of the Associated Blind Men of Maryland in the "Other Blind Fellow" brought out in a humorous and clever manner the misconceptions and misunderstandings arising between the blind and those who see. The comparisons and illustrations were by no means of advantage to the "blind man who sees." Two telegrams of regret were read by Charles F. F. Campbell, the secretary of the association. One was from his father and mother. Sir Francis and Lady Campbell, of London. These pioneers in work for the blind expressed their best wishes for a successful convention. Sir Francis is an American by birth who was knighted by the king of England for the excellence and faithfulness of his work. The other telegram from Mrs. Joshua Piza brought greetings from 12,000 Jewish women in 60 cities. Mrs. Piza is the chairman of the National Council of Jewish women, department of the blind.

Gave Musical Program.

The musical numbers were received with much applause and the best of attention. They were all given by people connected with the Illinois school with the exception of the "Il Bacio" of Arditi which was played and sung by a blind young lady of much ability, Miss Edith Cook of St. Louis. The program follows:

Mr. Mayers was accompanied by Miss Helen M. Jones and Miss Smith by Miss Alice Mathis.

Supt. Woolston's Welcome.
Superintendent Woolston in his address of welcome said that the delegates assembled represent the cause of 100,000 blind persons in the United States. "These men, women and children who have been deprived of the faculty of sight wish to be useful in the world. They want to make their contribution to the world life, so that they may feel that they have earned the right to live, that they have fulfilled their destiny. It is the task of the seeing to aid them in every way. We must help the blind to realize their ambitions, we must strive to be more efficient in the education of the children who are blind. We are striving to do these things with all our power and we assure those present that we have at heart the welfare of all the blind in America."

President Eben P. Morford of Brooklyn, N. Y., responded in behalf of the association of workers for the blind. He said:

Expressed Appreciation.

"There are occasions when it is a privilege, as well as a pleasure, to stand up and say things in response to such a hearty, sincere and cordial welcome as you have extended to the members of the American Association Workers for the Blind, this evening. I feel that I am voicing the unanimous vote of all our members and of all the friends who are interested in the cause for which we have gathered together, when I say that we fully and feelingly appreciate your generosity in inviting us to hold our 12th Biennial Convention within the walls of this long established and nation-wide known State School for the Blind of Illinois, and we also fully appreciate, in the third person, objective case, the great amount of work, anxious thought, and time, which you and your faithful corps of assistants have freely contributed to make this occasion a pleasant and enjoyable one for this great host which has descended upon you. Also through you, my dear Mr. Woolston, we wish to extend to the Board of Trustees of this school, our appreciative thanks for favors granted.

"And, with your permission, my friends and fellow-members, I desire to extend my remarks for a few minutes and address a few words to you direct. I am glad to welcome you all, each and every one, to the 12th Biennial Convention of the American Association Workers for the Blind, and I trust that you will grant me an opportunity some time during the period while we shall be gathered, to shake you by the hand and wish you God speed in the work that it is your personal privilege to be engaged in for the betterment of our fellow-blind."

Seek to Help Brothers.
"We have gathered for the purpose of discussing the pros and cons of some of the vital questions which are hourly and daily confronting us in our ministering to, and being administered unto, the members of the Kingdom of Blindness. We may have widely diverging views on many of the problems that confront us as workers, as far as details go, but in the main, fundamental facts, I feel confident that we are converging, more and more, year by year, and as members of the great human family, are bending all our energies in the one common direction, namely for the uplifting and betterment of our fellow-blind."

"My friends, as I stand before you this evening, trying through the medium of my voice to bring our minds and thoughts in tune with each other, there is a thought which lays very near to my heart and which I feel that I ought to give to you for your consideration and for you to take home with you and impress it upon all of our fellow-blind with whom you come in contact."

"The thought is compassed in its entirety by two words, blind, sighted, or if you prefer, seeing. These two words are just as closely allied and mean just as much when applied to our problems as do the words, positive and negative in the problems of electricity, right and wrong in the problems of morality, male and female in the problems of life or the progress of nature, in fact they are the two halves of one great whole."

"My friends, and I am speaking now direct to my fellow-blind, we, the weaker half, the negative half, cannot hope to exist and progress and prosper, without the aid and support of our seeing brethren and the sooner blind people recognize and accept the fact, just that much sooner will they be enabled to accomplish something in this world that will be worth while."

Let Me Illustrate This by a Concrete Example.
"Let me illustrate this by a concrete example, not by way of criticism as the result has proved the wisdom of the action taken. Back in the late eighties or early nineties, an organization of blind men and women was formed by a number of graduates of Blind school in the Middle West and their object was to secure means for the higher education of blind pupils and for the general advancement of the cause for the blind. They met at stated periods and exerted their influence but failed to accomplish their object and in 1903 they decided to broaden their organization by inviting seeing people to join their society and the result was that in 1905 at Saginaw, Mich., a re-organization took place and the present organization was effected. The result is before you to day; beginning with a membership of about thirty at each biennial meeting the number has doubled until last year at Overbrook we had enrolled 329 delegates representing more than 125 organizations for the betterment of the blind located in the United States and Canada. As to benefits accruing to the blind, I refer you to the reports of the several conventions and invite you to look about and note the many activities that have been established in the interests of the blind and their existence has come about largely through the influence exerted by this organization, and right here my friends allow me to say that the growth of our organization, the value of its conferences, the influence it has exerted throughout this country and abroad, is due almost entirely to the untiring, day and night energy of our irrepressible secretary, Charles F. F. Campbell. My friends and fellow workers, Overbrook is stamped upon my heart never to be forgotten and those who were instrumental in bringing about that great success and the noble love feast with which it was brought to close, will live in the hearts and minds of all for many years to come."

"One more thought and I will not tax your patience longer. The seeing public all over our land has gradually come to a realization of the fact that there are latent abilities among the blind that it is of value to cultivate. They are ready and willing to lend their hearts and hands, and give of their money, to bring out these latent possibilities and it is now up to you and me and every blind man, woman and child in this great, progressive country, to do the very best that we can to make good. We cannot afford to relax our energies, or to allow ourselves to think that because we are blind, due allowance will be made for our handicap. If we wish to continue this wave of prosperity that is carrying us along on its crest, and if we wish to increase its height, length and breadth, we must exert ourselves without ceasing and the goal will be reached."

"The Other Blind Fellow."
The blind man who can see was the subject of the address by George R. Bellows, the vice-president of the Associated Blind Men of Maryland, entitled "The Other Blind Fellow." Mr. Morford was introduced by William C. Sherlock of Baltimore, treasurer of the association, who spoke of the efficient work of Mr. Morford as manager of the Western Newspaper Union of Baltimore.

Mr. Bellows' Address.
By the use of many funny stories and clever illustrations Mr. Bellows showed that the blind man is not the only man deprived of sight. The speaker was all the more able to make comparisons between the seeing and sightless because it was not until middle life that he lost his own sight. Many were the strange experiences and misunderstandings which he underwent soon after he became blind. He learned that the blind are looked upon as more or less abnormal mentally. People are prone to speak to them as if they were deaf or slow to understand or as if they stood in constant need of sympathy. "If there is one word in the dictionary I detest it is the word 'abnormal.' We blind know we are abnormal, but we don't like to have the fact rammed down our throats. We have no corner on that characteristic, however. Cast your eyes over any audience and take note of how many are anywhere near normal. The man with bald head, false teeth or dyspeptic stomach can have nothing to brag about." Mr. Bellows spoke especially of the value and need of sunshine.

"Get sunshine in your heart and then get it into the lives of others. In every walk of life there is a demand for sunshine. The supply is ample but adequate means of distribution are lacking. If the saying is true that the same set of muscles which control the laughing faculty are the muscles which draw down the mouth and free the tears, it is evident that they are muscles sadly misused by the majority of humanity. Let us gather up the sunshine laying all around our path."

DAMAGED BY LIGHTNING.

Lightning early yesterday afternoon struck an elm in front of the academy on South Church street, tearing off an immense branch which fell to the pavement with a crash. J. Herman's horse was tied on the opposite side of the street and was so badly frightened that there came near being a runaway. The same flash of lightning struck the window in the east side of the tower of State Street Presbyterian church, tearing off some woodwork and bricks but doing no serious damage.

It is said that the copper point which surmounts the tower is not properly grounded and serves to attract lightning. This, however, has been the case only a few days. A lightning flash last Saturday which struck the copper point was so strong that it tore off a considerable portion of the grounding wire. An order has already been given to have it replaced.

During the storm Tuesday a horse owned by Henry Stewart, who resides in the Orleans neighborhood, was killed by lightning. The animal was standing under a tree which was struck but the other horses in the pasture were uninjured. Mr. Stewart said it was one of his best horses and valued it at $200. The animal was insured.

John Ward, who resides on Coltrane avenue, had a valuable horse killed by lightning in the Buckhorn neighborhood Tuesday afternoon.

POULTRY MEETING POSTPONED.

Only a small number of members of the Morgan County Poultry Association were present at the meeting held in the office of Attorney William E. Thomson Tuesday evening for the purpose of taking action on the question of holding the annual poultry show in connection with the annual Farmers Institute. While all of those present were in favor of the combination they felt that a larger representation of the association should take action on the matter and the meeting was adjourned subject to the call of the president, R. C. Reynolds.

SOCIAL EVENTS.

The regular quarterly meeting of the visitors of the home department of the Central Christian church was held at the church Tuesday afternoon at 2:30. Committees were appointed to take charge of these quarterly meetings for the coming year.

The marriage of Miss Helen Lewis and Alvin Keys will take place Wednesday evening at 7:30 o'clock at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. John M. Lewis of Quincy. Miss Marie Stahl of Quincy will be the maid of honor and Edward L. Keys, a brother of the groom, will act as best man. The groom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Edward D. Keys of Springfield and is county auditor of Sangamon county. The bride is well known in Jacksonville, having graduated from the Illinois Woman's college, and has often visited here since.

The ladies of Centenary and Northminster churches had charge of the fourth of a series of social teas, given in behalf of Passavant hospital. The gathering was held at the home of Mrs. E. L. Kinney on South Prairie street Tuesday. Despite the rain of the afternoon a goodly number was present. The musical numbers were given by members of the Junior Etude club and during the afternoon light refreshments were served. The committee from Centenary M. E. church was composed of Mrs. Albert Metcalf, Miss Winnie Wackerle, Mrs. T. H. Buckthorpe, Mrs. W. D. Mathis, Mrs. Louise Kolley, Mrs. Patton, Mrs. H. C. Busby, Mrs. Wells, Mrs. Hier, Mrs. Charles Clampt, Mrs. L. H. Clampt, and Mrs. George Goebel. From Northminster were Mesdames Marcus Vieira, Martin, Pauline Vasconcellos, John Joaquin, Emma Vieira, Gomes, Martha Day. The refreshments were served by Mrs. H. G. Lynn, Misses Esther Spooner, Julia Mendonsa, Ruth Harker, Esther Davis, Lillian Davis, Margaret Clampt, and Martha Hoover.

The Amoma class of the First Baptist church held a banquet Tuesday evening in the parlors of the church at which were present over fifty-five members of the class and friends. The occasion was the quarterly business meeting of the class and the birthday of the teacher, Mrs. A. B. Williamson to whom the banquet came as a surprise. Short addresses of congratulation to the teacher in review of the work of the class were made by the Rev. W. L. Dorgan, pastor of the church and Dr. G. H. Kopperl. Several very enjoyable musical numbers were given. Miss Lena Herman and Miss Bertha Austin sang a duet and Mrs. Thomas Harber, a vocal solo. An instrumental solo was played by Miss Lucille Johns.

The luncheon was a delicious two course affair. In the center of the table where the teacher sat was a large birthday cake bearing the number of candles of the teacher's age.

Officers of the class were elected as follows: President—Miss Mary Laurie, Vice-president—Mrs. Chas. Story, Mrs. Laurie succeeded Mrs. George Smith who died and Mrs. Chas. Story succeeded Mrs. W. L. Dorgan, who resigned.

OPPOSE UTILITY BILL.

City Council Authorizes Telegram of Protest Sent to Gov. Dunne.

It was also decided that the mayor and commissioners should go to Springfield to day to appear with others in the hearing before the governors.

Mayor Davis sent the following telegram to Springfield: "The City Council of the City of Jacksonville, Illinois, in special session passed a motion unanimously opposing the Public Utility Bill as recently passed. It asks that you veto this bill as it is manifestly unfair to every municipality in the state.

"George W. Davis, Mayor."

MAY MANDAMUS COUNCIL.

If Successor to Dr. Clampt is Not Named Mr. Hairgrove Will Bring Proceedings to Force Action.

V. N. Hairgrove, acting as attorney for William Newman, will bring mandamus proceedings against the city council to compel them to appoint a member of the board of education from the third ward unless such action is taken voluntarily. Mr. Hairgrove maintains that as Dr. Clampt in his plea set forth that he had changed his residence to the second ward, that now under the school charter that it is the duty of the council to select his successor. The fact that an appeal to a higher court is pending on the original mandamus proceedings, Mr. Hairgrove says has no bearing on the case. He claims that it is the duty of City Clerk Pyatt to formally notify the council of the finding of the court already made and that then it is the duty of the council to name a board member.

Attacks of Indigestion

Attacks of Indigestion

"I believe Chamberlain's Tablets have saved my life, writes Mrs. Maggie Coyle, Golden City, Mo. 'I had pains in my stomach so bad I thought I could not live. Our doctor said it was congestion of the stomach. I would go to bed perfectly well and wake up in the night as bad as I could be and live. Our doctor said it would do no good to give medicine internally. He had to inject medicine in my arm. Since taking Chamberlain's Tablets I can eat anything I want without hurting me.' This form of indigestion is extremely painful and often dangerous. By taking Chamberlain's Tablets after eating, and especially when you have fullness and weight in the stomach after eating, the disease may be warded off and avoided. Chamberlain's Tablets not only aid digestion, but strengthen and invigorate the stomach."

MAY SOLVE DOUBLE MURDER MYSTERY IN KENTUCKY

Aged Man Charged With Killing Mrs. Edith Forrest to Have Hearing Today.

Greenup, Ky., June 24.—Ezra Crabtree, the old man who is charged with the murder of George Steele and Mrs. Edith Forrest, will be given a preliminary hearing in the Greenup county court here tomorrow. The authorities are hopeful that the hearing will bring to light facts that will solve the mystery of the double murder, which but for the accidental finding of the skeletons of the two victims might forever have remained a tragedy of the unknown.

On December 14, 1912, George Steele, father of the family residing on the other side of the Ohio river, not far from Ironton, and Mrs. Edith Forrest, wife of Andrew Forrest, disappeared. The couple were known to be intimate and at the time of their disappearance it was the general supposition that it was a case of elopement. The husband of the woman was of this belief and in February he filed suit for divorce and was granted a decree on the ground that his wife had eloped. The last that had been seen of the couple was when they crossed the ferry from Ironton to Russell, Ky.

The tragic sequel of the elopement was revealed two weeks ago yesterday, when two men who were hunting ginseng in the hills near Russell found what remained of the bodies of a man and woman, lying side by side, under what was left of a man's overcoat and a woman's fur. The man's skull was crushed in several places and he had been shot through the right side, while the skull of the woman had been shattered into fragments.

The day after the discovery of the skeletons a son of George Steele identified the body of the man as that of his father, Andrew Forrest, the divorced husband of Mrs. Edith Forrest, identified the body of the woman as that of his former wife. The clothes of the couple and a purse and woman's shopping bag, together with jewelry and other articles found on the bodies, made identification complete.

Two days after the finding of the bodies the authorities took into custody Ezra Crabtree, a man of 65 years, residing near Ironton. Crabtree was known to have been numbered among Mrs. Forrest's admirers and it was said that he had openly displayed his jealousy of Steele and his anger at the woman's apparent preference for the latter.

The police are of the theory that after Steele and Mrs. Forrest eloped in December, Crabtree met them in Ironton; that he followed them across the river on the ferry boat, quarrelled with Steele after arriving on the Kentucky side, followed him up the railroad tracks and into the hills, where the bodies were found.

Crabtree has made many conflicting statements since his arrest. In his stories he has accounted for his movements on December 14, the day of the murder, up to noon of that day, but has been indefinite as to his movements after that time. He has admitted seeing Steele and the woman, but denies the statements that he was seen following them across the river or that he was seen in the vicinity of the place where the crime was committed. He has admitted that he was in love with Mrs. Forrest and that he was frequently in her company.

Crabtree's wife died about fifteen years ago and since that time he has made his home with relatives in Ironton and in various nearby towns and villages. He is the father of two daughters and one son. Several years ago he moved to the town of La Grange, where he met Mrs. Forrest and became infatuated with her.

Mrs. Forrest was about 35 years old and the mother of several children. Steele, the second victim of the tragedy, was about 46 and the father of twelve children.

The daughter of the murdered woman declares that Crabtree told her he knew what had become of her mother and Steele after Ironton had been reached. A citizen of Ironton has stated that he saw Crabtree follow the couple over the river on the next ferry boat after failing to catch the one they were in. What is regarded as another link in the chain of evidence against the accused man is the declaration of a Chesapeake & Ohio railroad engineer, who declares that he saw a man answering Crabtree's description near the scene of the murder on December 14, and that questioning him he said he was looking for a man who had run away with his wife.

FACTS ABOUT MEAT

SUPPLY OF THE WORLD

United States Furnishes About One Third of That in International Trade.

Washington, June 24.—The total value of meat and food animals entering international trade is, according to the latest figures of the Bureau of Foreign and Domestic Commerce, Department of Commerce, approximately 450 million dollars per annum, of which about one-third is from the United States, and consists chiefly of pork and pork products.

While the total value of meat products and food animals exported from the U. S. in the year which ends with this month will be but about 150 million dollars, against approximately 250 million in 1906, this reduced total far exceeds that of any other country. Meats and food animals exported from Argentina in 1912 amounted to but 67 million dollars in value; from Australia, in 1911, 31 million; from New Zealand 21 million; from Canada, 14 million; and from Uruguay, 11 million. These six countries—the United States, Argentina, Australia, New Zealand, Canada, and Uruguay—are the chief meat-exporting countries of the world. It will be seen from these figures that our meat exports are not only larger than those of any other country but actually exceed the aggregate of our five principal rivals.

The fall in our exports of meats and food animals, which has characterized recent years, has occurred chiefly in beef; pork products, always an important factor in the meat exports, show but a slight reduction.

The United States still has, despite the reduction in her live stock, in recent years, a larger number of food animals than any other country of the world. Of cattle alone, the number in the United States is 56 million, the only country having a larger number being India, with 112 million, while Russia in Europe and Asia has 51 million; Argentina, 29 million; Brazil, 25 million; Germany, 21 million; and the United Kingdom, 12 million. Of sheep, the United States has 54 million; Australia, 92 million; Russia, 85 million; Argentina, 67 million; the United Kingdom, 30 million; India, 26 million; Uruguay, 26 million; and New Zealand 24 million. Of swine, the United States has 61 million; Russia, 13 million; and Germany, 22 million. The total number of food animals (including in this term merely cattle, sheep, and hogs) was, at the latest available date, in the United States, 159 million; Russia in Europe and Asia, 149 million; India, 140 million; Australia, 104 million; Argentina, 98 million; Germany, 51 million; the United Kingdom, 46 million; and France, 39 million.

HONOR MEMORY OF BEECHER.

New York, June 24.—The universal regard in which the memory of Henry Ward Beecher is held was given expression throughout this section of the country today by exercises commemorating the one hundredth anniversary of the famous preacher's birth. In Connecticut, the ancestral home of the Beecher family, and in Brooklyn, where Mr. Beecher spent so many of the most important years of his life, the principal public observances were held, but there was scarcely a Congregational church or society in this section which did not devote some time to the memory of the man whose sermons and writings touched the common heart of humanity.

NEW LAWS AS PASSED BY THE LEGISLATURE

Work of the Forty-Eighth General Assembly of Illinois.

BETTER HIGHWAYS FOR STATE ARE ASSURED

Provisions of the Good Roads Bill as Finally Passed by Both Houses—Votes for Women One of the Notable Enactments of the Session—Appropriations for Various Causes—Miscellaneous Laws Passed.

The session of the Illinois legislature just closed has been pronounced the wildest in recent history by the old timers. There was no party with a majority in either branch and it was the first for the new Progressive party. A total of 1,616 bills was introduced in both branches, 922 in the house and 694 in the senate.

The session established a new record for the length of its life. It began Jan. 8. The speakership deadlock hung on until Jan. 28 and tied up the start of business and the senatorial deadlock that followed also delayed business at the start.

The big item in the list of the dead is the residence district measure. The house failed to concur in the senate amendments and, although it had passed both houses, the legislative requirement was not complied with and there is no more of it. Thus was the big victory of the "drys" wiped out in the closing of legislative life. Under this bill it was calculated that 1,000 saloons in Chicago would be voted out of business.

The final legislative act of the senate was to concur in the house amendments to senate bill 355 by H. S. Magill, Jr., changing the law in relation to the certification of teachers. The last legislative act of the house was to pass the senate bill fixing the fare for children on railroad trains at 1 1/2 cents a mile in cases where tickets have not been purchased.

It was just midnight when the constitutional convention resolution amendment was listed among the debris of this legislative session. It got 80 yeas votes to 41 nays. To carry a constitutional document it requires a two-thirds vote of the house, or 102.

The women's ten hour work day bill was killed at the finish, when the senate, by a vote of 21 to 17, tabled a motion to appoint a conference committee, after the house had refused to concur in the senate amendment to the bill.

The hard-fought battle in the legislature over the public utilities commission bill was settled when the two houses agreed on the house measure, under which there will be but one commission to regulate the rates, service and finances of all the utilities of the state.

Anti-pass legislation died of suffocation in the last act of the legislative drama. George Fitch of Peoria lost heart when he saw the cards stacked against him and threw up the sponge. He did not call the bill up, knowing it would be nothing short of cruelty to attempt it.

FOR BETTER HIGHWAYS

Provisions of Good Roads Bill as Passed by the Legislature.

House bill 842—Committee on good roads. The Tice good roads bill.

The bill provides for a non-partisan state highway commission consisting of three members, salaries of each to be $3,500, the terms of the original board to be two, four and six years, to be appointed by the governor or by and with the consent of the senate, the terms to be six years following the reappointment. A chief highway engineer, term six years, salary $4,000, appointed by the governor; assistant engineer, term six years, salary $2,500, appointed by the governor. Provides for state aid, the state to participate to the extent of 50 per cent and the county to participate to the extent of 50 per cent, of the total cost of constructing permanent roads in any county. Provides for the appointment by the county board in each county of a county superintendent of highways, such superintendent to pass competitive examination at the hands of the state highway commission as to his qualifications for the place, term six years, salary to be paid by the county board from the county funds. Provides for three highway commissioners in each township and road district, that feature remaining as it is under the old law, with the added section providing for a referendum vote in each township and road district as to whether they will continue the system of three highway commissioners or for a one-man highway system.

Repeals and rewrites and amends the present road and bridge laws of the state. Bills were passed appropriating $300,000 for the year beginning July 1, 1913 and ending June 30, 1914; also $300,000 for the year beginning July 1, 1914 and ending June 30, 1915.

Repeals and rewrites and amends the present road and bridge laws of the state. Bills were passed appropriating $300,000 for the year beginning July 1, 1913 and ending June 30, 1914; also $300,000 for the year beginning July 1, 1914 and ending June 30, 1915.

21, 1915; also $400,000 of the road fund now in the state treasury which has been derived from the automobile license for the year beginning July 1, 1913 and ending June 30, 1914. There is now in the road fund in the state treasury over $800,000 accumulated from the automobile license fund. A bill has been passed making a further appropriation of $400,000 from this special road fund for the year beginning July 1, 1914 and ending June 30, 1915.

This law upon going into effect will eliminate the present highway commission and any appropriation that is now made will cover and take the place of the appropriations which would be made for the present highway department.

C. P. AND ST. L. EMPLOYEES MAKE
STATEMENT OF THEIR POSITION

Say That They Will Strike Unless Demands Presented to Road Officials Are Granted.

There is a possibility of a strike on the C. P. & St. L. road of all telegraph operators and agents. The men are making certain demands calling for different working hours and for increased pay. Yesterday they gave out the following statement for publication:

Agents, telegraphers, train dispatchers, levermen and linemen were organized by the Order of Railroad Telegraphers in December, 1912 and January, 1913, resulting in the securing approximately 100 per cent membership.

A committee of three was elected for the purpose of drafting and having put into effect a schedule of contract with the C. P. & St. L. railroad embracing rules governing conditions of work and rates of pay for the above named employees.

The proposed schedule was drawn up and presented to the management for consideration in February. The schedule provided for seniority to govern the filling of vacancies, an investigation and appeal in cases of alleged unjust discipline, regulation of hours of service, establishing an eight hour day at offices where two or more telegraphers are employed and a ten hour day for offices in charge of but one man. It provided also for the establishing of fifteen days vacation per year with out loss of pay for all employees represented and who have heretofore been required to work every day in the year, being unable to secure relief or financially unable to lose the time, also other minor rules regulating local conditions.

The wage scale required an increase of 28 per cent, to bring the wages up to a livable basis and to a near-level with those of other lines in the country traversed by the C. P. & St. L. It is stated that wages now paid run from $25 per month up and generally are 20 to 30 per cent lower than those of other competing lines.

After several conferences with the general superintendent at which a settlement could not be reached the matter was appealed to the president and the general superintendent was requested to secure an appointment with the president for the committee. After numerous delays and postponements the committee went to the president in person and demanded that they be allowed an opportunity to state their case but met with an absolute refusal of a meeting. This resulted in the men represented feeling aggrieved and a strike was generally demanded and the case was finally turned over to the organization and after a vice-president was unable to arrange for a conference between the officers of the company and the committee representing the employees a strike ballot was put out and the men almost unanimously voted in favor of calling a strike as a last resort to obtain what they felt justly entitled to after years of such conditions and wages as now exist. They believed themselves entitled to advances in view of the increased cost of living and increases granted their fellow employees who had been organized for years, while no consideration had been given these employees.

The matter is now in the hands of a deputy president of the Order of Railroad Telegraphers who has full power to call a strike if a satisfactory settlement is not offered by the company. The strike if called will completely tie up the business of the C. P. & St. L. as practically every man will leave the service.

IMPROVEMENT ABROAD HELPS N. Y. STOCKS

NO SUSTAINED DEMAND ON A LARGE SCALE.

Part of Early Gains Lost in a Mid-session Slump—Bidding Increases
Toward Close—Copper Figures in Raise.

(By Associated Press.)

New York, June 24.—Improvement of the principal foreign markets offered direct bearing today upon movements of stocks here which carried them to materially higher figures since the outbreak of the Balkan war last year. The disturbed state of affairs has been recognized as one of the large factors in the depression of the home market. While foreign markets are still under strain, with a long period of forced conservatism ahead, there was evident today a definite improvement which was reflected in the course of the securities markets at the principal foreign centers. From London came word that activity over the settlement which was thought recently to present a serious situation had abated.

There was no sustained demand on a large scale, however, and part of the early gains were lost in a mid-session slump, but toward the close bidding increased.

Despite the recent decline in copper metal the copper stocks were conspicuous in the day's rise. An advance in the London metal market prompted covering. The short interest in the coppers was said to be unusually heavy.
